Each team is responsible to pay the fee prior to the beginning of the game.

Once the final schedule is published, only the referee, league or sponsoring home field official can cancel a game.

Only the referee can cancel or suspend a game because of weather. Both Teams must be ready to play.

The referee is responsible to fill out a game report within 48 hours of every game (played or not).

Any game that is not played in its entirety will be reported to the Referee Assignor who will communicate with League Scheduler.

1) The game is canceled by CNYJSA or Home Field Official after the referee has left for the game or is present at the field.

Teams should not pay the fee. CNYJSA will pay Fee.

2) Both teams arrive to play and the field is deemed unplayable before the game by the referee or sponsoring home field official?

Teams should not pay the referee. CNYJSA will pay Fee.

3) Both teams arrive to play and the game is halted after kick-off?

Teams pay the referee full fee

4) One (or both) team no-shows for a game?

Team should not pay the referee. Game will be considered a forfeit.

CNYJSA will pay the ref fee & the team that forfeited will be assessed the ref fee and a fine.

5) The Referee no-shows?

a) If a certified ref (CNYRef Association is available and willing to ref. the game will be considered an official game. Teams will pay that ref the normal ref fee.

b) If the game is suppose to be a 3 ref system and only 2 refs show up neither of which is the lead official, then Ar1 will assume the role of lead officials. The officials will return one AR fee which will be split between both teams.

c) If the game is suppose to be a 3 ref game and only 1 ref show up, the game may procede. Teams will pay that ref the normal ref fee.

d) No refs show up for the game(no certified refs available). Teams may play a " friendly game " but will not be considered official. Game will be rescheduled.
